

Ship Tour on Sunday, 7th August

European Get Together in Berlin from 5th to 7th August 2016

(See also: www.webmeeting-jcc.com/gettogether/index.php)

You will never get the chance to see more of Berlin in one hour.

This historical round trip is mainly for people who want to see more of Berlin within a short time. Being on water you will hear the heart beat of the city. It starts from Nikolaiviertel (the oldest residential area of Berlin) and ends also there with a duration of one hour. It is also possible to get into the ship at Friedrichstrasse.

Your ship will move beside the Parliament House, administrative area and "Haus der Kulturen der Welt" (Cultural House of the World).

You will see the Lutherbrücke (Luther bridge), Schloss Bellevue (President's House), die "Beamtenschlange" (Civil Servants Line) und die Siegessäule (Victory Pavilion).

You say 'Hallo' to the new central Railway Station keeping beside the Berliner Dom (Berlin Cathedral), die Museumsinsel (Island of Museums) and Nikolaiviertel - the oldest residential area of Berlin.

You will get audio guide during the whole one hour in different Languages.
